Cast

Whitley Armstrong (Dolly Levi) - Whitley Armstrong is a first-year theatre major/musical theatre concentration at NSU. She has been performing for several years and is excited to have the opportunity to work in this show and to continue working! This is Whitley’s first production at NSU and she has enjoyed learning and working alongside her fellow cast mates to put on such an amazing show.

Julia Marn (Irene Malloy and “Brand New Day” Lead Soloist) - Julia Marn is a freshman theater major/concentration in musical theater with double minors in arts administration and dance; she is delighted to be performing in her first musical at NSU! When she isn't performing, Julia is also a part of Razor's Edge Shark Talent Scholars Program. She would like to thank Bill, Caryl, Patrick, Ron, the cast, and crew for making this experience so much fun!

Chantal Nosievici (Dancer) - Chantal is a theatre major with a stage and screen acting concentration, and she is minoring in business management and marketing. She’s also a part of the Women’s Tennis Team at NSU, currently ranked #3 in the nation (Division 2). Chantal was born in Germany and came to the United States in 2018 to be a student-athlete. She was also a part of the Maltese Falcon and the Mayfly.

Julia Kelley (Casey) - Julia Kelley is a senior communication major with a concentration in Strategic Communication and she is pursuing minors in theatre, business and transdisciplinary studies/honors. Julia is part of the Farquhar Honors College, Razor's Edge Shark Talent Scholars Program, Stage 2 Production Company, the NSU Mako Band, and PRSSA. Past productions at NSU include: A Dog's House (Eden), The House of Blue Leaves (White Lady), Little Shop of Horrors (Ensemble) and DNA (Jan). Thank you to Bill, Calypso, Caryl, Dan, Mia, Patrick, Ron, Roy, and the cast for this rewarding experience and for giving us the opportunity to do theatre again!

Sydney Bruenen (Fannie Brice) - Sydney Bruenen is a junior who is pursuing two bachelor's degrees in theatre and music here at NSU. She grew up in Clermont, Florida, and her favorite credits include DNA (Leah), Shadow Infernety (Cream Rabbit), Cinderella (Marie), and Anything Goes (Reno Sweeney). Sydney is the music director and co-founder of NSU's student-led choral ensemble, Canta Sempre. She is a student leader of Stage 2 Productions, and a proud member of the women's barbershop society, Harmony Inc. Sydney also works on campus in the scene shop. After college, she plans to pursue a career in theatre.

Ahviana Palmer (Dancer) - Ahviana Palmer is a junior currently working towards the completion of her bachelor's degree in dance, emphasizing musical theatre. She is a member of Razor's Edge Shark Talent Scholars Program and the PR Chair of Infinite Motion, NSU's dance club. Ahvi has been involved in Danceworks and Studentworks, as well as the Shark Showcases produced by Shark Talent. In 2019, she had the honor to perform in a dance piece which was presented at the American College Dancer's Association. Outside of NSU, Ahvi teaches ballet at a local dance studio and after college, she plans on moving to New York to pursue her dream of being a Broadway dancer.

Peyton Raynor (Jack) - Peyton is a senior who came to Nova to study marine biology but is now pursuing her passion in musical theatre and media production. Involved in theatre since her secondary school days on her home island of Bermuda, Peyton enjoys fire dancing and performing with local groups in her free time. She enjoys creating artwork, photography, and digital media content as a hobby and would love to one day combine it with her passion for theatre.

Daniella Rudolph (Jenny Lind) - Daniella made her debut in the performing arts world at a very young age working as a professional in numerous commercials and tv-series in the South African entertainment industry. Daniella is a dedicated young artist, passionate about exploring and developing her performing arts skills especially in this new chapter of her life in the United States. Not only is she a vocalist, actress, dancer, but she is also passionate about communication and media studies.

Kaeleigh Sturgeon (Bea) - Kaeleigh Sturgeon is a senior theatre major with minors in marketing, graphic design, and strategic communication. She is very active on campus including the Razor's Edge Shark Talent Scholars Program, Stage 2 Productions, President's 64, Farquhar Honors College, Senior Room Shark, and more. Kaeleigh's has performed in The Maltese Falcon (Announcer), DNA (Martini), She Kills Monsters (Agnes), Little Shop of Horrors (Audrey), The House of Blue Leaves (Bunny Flingus), and A Dog's House (Nicole); she has loved getting back into musical theatre and would like to thank the cast, crew, and Bill for making this show happen.

Molly Sullivan (Dancer) - Molly Sullivan is a health and wellness coaching major with a minor in theatre. She has been performing for seven years and has been dancing for almost 10. Molly is also involved with the new elite singing group NSU Shark Gold, and she plans to become an occupational therapist after receiving her doctorate at NSU in the future.

Nina Poulos (Lenora) - Nina Poulos is a sophomore theatre student with a concentration in musical theatre major. She is so excited to be a part of this project! Her previous appearances include DNA (Tate) and The Maltese Falcon (Wilmer). Nina looks forward to participating in future shows at NSU. She would like to thank her cast, crew, and mates for all their support!

Antonella Lalinde (Portia) - Antonella Lalinde is a theatre major with a concentration in musical theatre. She has been a part of small plays and musical productions in both local and school programs, such as West Side Story, Legally Blonde, and James and the Giant Peach. On campus, she is part of Stage 2 Production Company, recently she was a part of The Maltese Falcon and the Mayfly.

Aaron Kurzweil (Adam and “Brand New Day” Lead Soloist) - Aaron Kurzweil is a freshman at Nova Southeastern University, majoring in marketing. He is a South Florida native and has been in love with the arts since he was young. Aaron has been involved with theatre for the last 6 years at his high school, Inside Out Theatre Company, and Measure for Measure Theatre. He looks forward to his time at Nova and spreading his love of the arts through this community.

Caroline Cespedes (Joy) - Caroline Cespedes is a sophomore theatre student with a major concentration in Musical Theatre. She has performed at the Fringe Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland, and she recently starred as Gutman in NSU's production of The Maltese Falcon. She is very excited to perform in her first musical production at Nova along with the rest of the cast.

Spencer Carlisle (Aaron) - Spencer Carlisle is a sophomore theatre major and Razor’s Edge Shark Talent Scholar’s Program member. Spencer participated in the 2019 Fringe Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland and at NSU, he performed in Spooky Shorts 2019, Improv Jam 2020 and 2021, the Mayfly, and The Maltese Falcon.
