

The Department of Humanities and Politics in the Halmos College of Arts and Sciences is proud to announce:

The Department of Humanities and Politics Student Scholar Fund

This fund was established by DHP faculty to support and encourage the scholarly endeavors of students enrolled in DHP undergraduate or graduate programs. The fund will provide financial support to DHP undergraduate and graduate students for professional conference presentations, academic publications, research, and other scholarly student initiatives. Students apply for funds through a written request to the Department Chair, who makes a decision in consultation with a committee of full-time DHP faculty. This award is provided in the form of partial reimbursement of expenses, at the Chair's discretion.

Students interested in applying for support must first apply for a Pan SGA Professional Development Grant: <https://orgsync.com/45617/forms/292933> and submit the response from the SGA as part of the application.

To apply, please submit the following to the department chair, Dr. David Kilroy, at dkilroy@nova.edu:

- Name
- Major
- Amount requested
- Short explanation of how the funds will be used along with any supporting documentation such as an acceptance letter for a conference.
- Official response from the SGA to your request for support from the Pan SGA Professional Development Grant.
